No. 161-SEC/1A-8/2020

Date: 10.01.2022

Sub: Instructions for the voters of Containment Zones

In consideration of the prevalent COVID-19 pandemic situation and in consideration of the restrictions imposed by the State Govt. delineating certain areas as containment zones, the Commission, in continuation of its earlier COVID-19 guidelines for the ensuing Municipal General Elections to the four Municipal Corporations, directs that a voter who is willing to vote, residing in a Containment Zone, shall be allowed to cast his/ her vote at the last hour of poll at his/ her respective polling station, under the overall supervision of the Nodal Health Officer assigned for the Municipal Corporation concerned, with proper COVID-19 preventive measures.

The same protocol as adopted for voting of COVID-19 positive voters casting their votes will be adopted at the polling station during casting of vote by a person residing on that day in a containment zone.

Sector Officer shall be responsible for co-ordination and facilitation during this exercise for containment zones falling within the areas of their allocated polling station.

By order of the
State Election Commissioner
